CRUZ M. BUSTAMANTE
Lieutenant Governor

Lieutenant Governor's
*Commission for One California

California is at the forefront of national changes in demographics and has the unique opportunity to demonstrate leadership in promoting diversity. To encourage discussion and to generate ideas that effectively address prejudice, intolerance and hate, Lieutenant Governor Cruz M. Bustamante formed the Commission for One California in August of 1999.

Mission Statement

To serve as a forum to understand diversity.

To provide information on how communities, big and small, can address prejudice, intolerance and hate.

To help parents, community leaders, teachers and law enforcement agencies fight hate crimes and intolerance.

To advocate for state and national legislation that promotes unity among people.

To promote political debate that is free of "scapegoating" and stereotyping.
